13. Petitioner states that in or around May 2011, while the decedent was in the hospital, Evelyn Lauderdale went to Merrill Lynch, John Hancock, and Wells Fargo Financial, and using a durable power of attorney signed by decedent, transferred between $150,000.00 - $250,000.00 from the decedent's investment accounts into the Chase account she co-owned with the decedent;
14. Petitioner states that the decedent did not know about and did not authorize Ms. Lauderdale to make such transfers;
15. Petitioner states that upon the decedent's death, the funds in the Chase account reverted to Ms. Lauderdale by operation of law;
16. Petitioner states that after decedent's death, Ms. Lauderdale closed the Chase account without any accountings having been given to the decedent before her death or to any other person with an interest in the funds, including the Petitioner or other pay-on-death beneficiaries of the investment accounts;
17. Petitioner states that he does not know what happened to the funds that were in the Chase account when Ms. Lauderdale closed the account;
18. Petitioner states that Ms. Lauderdale's removal of the funds from the decedent's accounts, without the decedent's knowledge or consent, constituted fraud on the decedent and on the intended beneficiaries of the accounts, including the beneficiaries of the Trust;
19. Petitioner states that as a result of her wrongful conduct, Ms. Lauderdale has breached her duties as successor trustee of the Trust and holds funds removed from the investment accounts;
20. Petitioner states that Ms. Lauderdale should be removed as trustee of the Trust and should be made to account and report for the funds she took from decedent's investment accounts and for her administration of the Trust estate;
21. Petitioner further states that Ms. Lauderdale, as successor trustee of the Trust, has a fiduciary duty to administer the Trust according to the Trust Instrument and applicable law, keep trust property separate from other property not subject to the Trust and see that the Trust property is designated as property of the Trust;
22. Further, Petitioner states that the Ms. Lauderdale, as successor trustee of the Trust, has a duty to keep the beneficiaries of the Trust reasonably informed of the Trust and its administration;
23. Petitioner alleges that Ms. Lauderdale has taken possession of Trust property and titled it in her own name individually. This property includes, but is not limited to, the funds taken from decedent's investment accounts;
24. Petitioner alleges that Ms. Lauderdale intentionally chose to act to her own benefit instead of to the benefit of the beneficiaries of the Trust, all contrary to her duties and responsibilities as successor trustee;
25. Petitioner also states that Ms. Lauderdale, in her capacity as successor trustee, has intentionally sought to harm Petitioner's interest as a beneficiary of the Trust by bringing a trust contest in the unlimited civil department of Fresno Superior Court (Case No. 11CECG02841), by failing to fully disclose in her pleadings the amendments to the Trust, which grant property to the Petitioner, by failing to disclose the existence of certificates of independent review related to the amendments to the Trust which grant property to the Petitioner, by failing to object to the amendments during the decedent's lifetime despite having been present at the time of their creation, and by seeking a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction against Petitioner enjoining him from accessing the trailer without filing an unlawful detainer action and without disclosing Petitioner's entitlement to that property under the amendments to the Trust;

26. Petitioner alleges that by her actions, Ms. Lauderdale has intentionally and willfully breached her fiduciary duties to the beneficiaries of the Trust, including Petitioner, thereby causing damage to the Petitioner and the other Trust beneficiaries;

Petitioner requests an Order:

1. Immediately removing Ms. Lauderdale as trustee of the Trust;
2. Appointing a neutral third-party as successor trustee;
3. Directing Ms. Lauderdale to prepare and file an account and report of her administration of the Trust for the period of May 1, 2011 up to and including her removal as successor trustee of the Trust, and set the account and report for hearing upon proper notice;
4. Directing Ms. Lauderdale to turn over to the successor trustee all assets in her possession or control removed from decedent's investment accounts, as well as any other assets properly belonging to the Trust;
5. Surcharging Ms. Lauderdale according to proof;
6. For damages according to proof;
7. For punitive damages in an amount warranted by Ms. Lauderdale's intentional and willful breach of her fiduciary duties;
8. For any other relief the Court deems just and proper.
